Game Art

GAME 1000

Course description

Successful games rely on compelling art and design to produce the "look and feel" of a game. Students learn and apply industry-standard principles, tools and techniques that are used to create outstanding game art assets. In addition, students adopt culturally appropriate representations that are applicable to the game narrative.

Can I transfer credits/use prior learning?

The Credit for Prior Learning centre assists with:

- Transferring courses completed at another accredited institution which may be eligible for transfer towards your education at Georgian.
- Prior Learning Assessment and Recognition (PLAR) – students can challenge course requirements based on relevant work or life skills and knowledge gained.

More information on the above options as well as the processes to apply for exemptions, visit the Credit for Prior Learning webpage.

If you have taken courses at Georgian in the past and they qualify for this program, they will automatically apply to your credential. You will see these courses in MyPath.
