Priority will be given to full time students when considering applications. Signed Residence Contract must be submitted by the appropriate due date outlined in section 1.0.
- All monies owed to the College by the applicant, including, but not limited to Residence Fees, Residence Deposit and College tuition must be paid up to date. Residence Fee information is outlined in section 1.0.

Meeting the above criteria does not in any way guarantee that an applicant will be granted admission to residence. Failing to meet any of the above criteria will constitute sufficient grounds to not accept a Residence Application.

2.2 Application & Residence Deposit Deadline: To be considered in the first round of residence offers the Residence Application, along with the non-refundable application fee of $50 (paid by credit card during online application process) must be received by the Department of Housing & Student Life Office by the deadline indicated in section 1.0. Meeting this condition is important because the College typically receives more applications than spaces available in the residence. Please note, it is the responsibility of the student to ensure that the required payment is received by the Dept. of Housing & Student Life Office prior to the stipulated deadline; slow mail service, or any other factor beyond the control of the College, will not be accepted as a reason to change an application's status from late to on-time.

The first payment of the residence fees along with a signed copy of the Residence Contract, must be received by the Department of Housing & Student Life Office on or before the deadlines indicated in section 1.0. Late receipt may lead to the cancellation of a student's Offer of Accommodation. The remainder of the fee payment schedule is outlined in section 1.0 and in the Offer of Accommodation.

2.4 Term of Residence Contract: This Residence Contract applies only to the term stated in section 3.1. Residents must submit a new application in any subsequent year, with Offers of Accommodation determined by the applicable criteria at that time.
